BrandExtract Named to Inc. 5000 List for Second Year Return to News

08.21.2012

BrandExtract, a brand experience company that provides business and marketing solutions, has for the second year in a row been named by Inc. magazine as one of America's fastest-growing private companies, ranking No. 3518 on the publication's prestigious Inc. 5000 list.

Inaugurated in 2007, The Inc. 5000 list is comprised of the top 5,000 companies with a minimum of $2 million in gross revenue. According to Inc. magazine, the list is the most important segment of the economy, America's largest and most dynamic.

"This is a testament to our focus on continually transforming our brand and making adjustments as needed, from product development to customer service," says Sean Burnett, CEO and President of BrandExtract. "This mindset continues to drive our success."

BrandExtract's growth is attributed to its commitment to continually work on the business. Over the past year, the firm has made several changes that its leadership believes have greatly contributed to its success. The addition of Sean Burnett as Chief Operating Officer has freed up valuable resources and streamlined processes. Additionally, the company is focusing more on its areas of expertise and has been honing its team's skills in those areas. The firm has also invested a lot back into the business, and not just financially.

Over the past year, BrandExtract has provided branding and marketing support to Marathon Oil, Chevron, GSE Environmental and many more notable clients.

In 2011, BrandExtract was ranked 77th on the Houston Business Journal Fast 100, a list of the fastest-growing companies in the Houston area based upon revenue growth.
